OIRO £155,000

Full Description

About Property

This detached house is centrally located yet in a quiet street just a short walk from the town centre of Alness. The property is spacious and benefits from double glazing and storage heating. There is a large garden to the rear with a garden shed and a drive to the side with room for two cars and there is additional parking in the public car park across the road. The house is a short walk from the amenities on offer in the town. The property is in need of some modernisation and redecoration. The ground floor wet room could be restored to a third bedroom. This is a fantastic opportunity for a first time buyer and it is also equipped for those with disabilities.

Averon Road runs parallel with the High Street and is also a short walk from the retail units. Despite its central location the street is very quiet.

Bridgend Primary School is nearby and the secondary school, leisure centre with swimming pool and library are all just a short distance from the property. Other amenities include a variety of national supermarkets, shops, banks, restaurants, hotels and take aways. Inverness is 20 miles distant and Dingwall is 10 miles away. Busses and train services are both available on a regular basis to the north and south, the bus stops and the train station are also a short walk from the property.
