About Property

The Plot at Arrina offers a rare opportunity to purchase land in the village of Arinacrinached on the highly sought after Applecross Peninsula. Offering a stunning outlook of a mountainous backdrop and breath-taking views towards Loch Torridon and Beinn Alligin beyond.

The plot extends to 0.034 hectare (0.084 acres), planning for the plot has lapsed and as such the seller will consider offers which are subject to planning. The site comes with a small stone building in situ and is fully enclosed with boundaries already well established. All services are available adjacent or close to the site with the private water supply being taken from the nearby loch. Drainage is by way of septic tank which will be located opposite the site. Viewing of the site is highly recommended to fully appreciate the excellent location combined with the beautiful views on offer.

The village of Arinacrinached is situated equally 15 minutes drive from Sheldaidg or Applecross. Sheldaidg offers an excellent range of facilities including shop, hotel, bar and churches. Education is provided at Sheldaidg

Primary School or Gairloch High School to which bus transportation is provided daily. Applecross hosts a community run fuel station, Post office, various shops, hotels and restaurants. The area is also a highly popular tourist destination with an excellent range of outdoor activities available on your doorstep including driving the world famous Bealach na Ba and following the coastal road to Shildaig, nestled in Loch Torridon Bay. With its hairpin bends and steep incline the reward is worth it with spectacular views across the bay to Raasay and Skye afforded.

Inverness the main business and commercial centre in the Highlands is approximately 78 miles away and offers extensive shopping, leisure and entertainment facilities along with excellent road, rail and air links to the South and beyond.
